

Partnering Opportunities Through Sterling Ledet & Associates

Sponsored Seminars, Speaking Events and Classes

Seminars and training events are one of the most effective ways to develop client relationships.

Our qualified and experienced instructor's can deliver seminars, presentations, or hands-on training classes on your company's behalf at trade shows, company meetings, or industry events.

As a sponsor here are some of the things you receive...

Everyone who attends your event gets a $50 certificate good for future training needs.

Handouts for each attendee

Free seat for any two day class to be given away as a door prize.

Marketing support including sales literature and a listing on our company web site.

Press release (distributed on Business Wire) announcing your event.

